

International Institute of Health Management Research Delhi
Exam (Batch 2020-2022)

Postgraduate Diploma in Management
(Hospital and Health) November 2021
Third Semester

HEM-705-Programme Planning, Implementation, Monitoring and Evaluation

Total Marks: 70

Duration: 2hrs

Short Questions (each carries 1 mark)

Q1) Stakeholder, in any public health programs, include

- a) Program staff      (b) Community   (c) Funding agency      (d) All of them

Q2) Which among the following components should be mentioned in the comprehensive health program plan

- a) Health problem      (b) Program activities   (c) Resources      (d) All of them

Q3) Which among the following is not a category of indicator

- a) Outcome indicators   (b) Process indicators   (c) Logic indicators      (d) All of them

Q4) Which among the following can be answered by the evaluation exercise

- a) Effectiveness of health program      (b) Cost-effectiveness of health program
(c) Attribution of health program      (d) All of them

Q5) Health planning includes

- a) Defining health problems      (b) Identifying unmet needs
(c) Establishing goals      (d) All of them

Q6) Factors outside the control of the health project which may affect the outcomes and goals of the project are called as

- a) Controlled factors      (b) Uncontrolled factors      (c) Assumptions      (d) None of the above

Q7) Health planning requires an understanding of health system. The important elements of health system include

- a) Community      (b) Health service delivery system
(c) Both (a) and (b)      (d) None of the above

Q8) Health need assessment includes collection of

- a) Primary data      (b) Secondary data
(c) Both (a) and (b)      (d) None of the above

Q9) Health program planning is _____ in nature.

- a) straight      (b) cyclic      (c) irregular      (d) none of the above

Q10) Causes identified in problem tree analysis becomes _____ in objective tree analysis

Short Questions (Each carries 6 marks)

- Q1) Write four points which makes monitoring different from evaluation
- Q2) Why is it important to prioritize health problem and how are they prioritized?
- Q3) Under NHM, each state prepares PIPs. Briefly explain any four functions of these PIPs.
- Q4) Differentiate between output and outcome by giving an example.
- Q5) Why an evaluation team, evaluating a health program, needs to be multi-disciplinary in nature (mention any four reasons for the same).

Long Questions (Each carries 15 marks)

- Q1) Explain the importance of evidence in health planning by elaborating on three examples in Indian context.
- Q2) Explain the horizontal and vertical logic in logical framework approach elaborating an example.